118 13. ADDITIONAL OFFERS

Unless prohibited by Seller, if Broker is asked by a buyer or another licensee(s) about the existence of other offers on the Property,
Broker will reveal the existence of other offers and whether they were obtained by the Licensee(s) identified in this Contract, by another
Licensee(s) working with Broker, or by a licensee(s) working for a different Broker. ONCE SELLER ENTERS INTO AN AGREEMENT OF SALE, BROKER IS NOT REQUIRED TO PRESENT OTHER OFFERS.

123 14. SELLER WILL REVEAL DEFECTS & ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS

- (A) Seller (including Sellers exempt from the Real Estate Seller Disclosure Law) will disclose all known material defects and/or environmental hazards on a separate disclosure statement. A material defect is a problem or condition that:
 - . is a possible danger to those living on the Property, or
 - 2. has a significant, adverse effect on the value of the Property.
 - The fact that a structural element, system or subsystem is near, at or beyond the end of the normal useful life of such a structural element, system or subsystem is not by itself a material defect.
- (B) Seller will update the Seller's Property Disclosure Statement as necessary throughout the term of this Listing Contract.
- (C) If Seller fails to disclose known material defects and/or environmental hazards:
 - 1. Seller will not hold Broker or Licensee(s) responsible in any way;

 - 3. Seller will pay all of Broker's and Licensee's costs that result. This includes attorneys' fees and court-ordered payments or settlements (money Broker or Licensee pays to end a lawsuit or claim).

15. IF PROPERTY WAS BUILT BEFORE 1978

The Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act says that any seller of property built before 1978 must give the buyer an EPA pamphlet titled Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home. The seller also must tell the buyer and the broker what the seller knows about lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards that are in or on the property being sold. Seller must tell the buyer how the seller knows that lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards are, the condition of the painted surfaces, and any other information seller knows about lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards on the property. Any seller of a pre-1978 structure must also give the buyer any records and reports that the seller has or can get about lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards in or around the property being sold, the common areas, or other dwellings in multi-family housing. According to the Act, a seller must give a buyer 10 days (unless seller and the buyer agree to a different period of time) from the time an agreement of sale is signed to have a "risk assessment" or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards done on the property. Buyers may choose not to have the risk assessment or inspection for lead paint hazards done. If the buyer chooses not to have the assessment or inspection, the buyer must inform the seller in writing of the choice. The Act does not require the seller to inspect for lead paint hazards or to correct lead paint hazards on the property. The Act does not apply to housing built in 1978 or later.

149 16. HOME WARRANTIES

At or before settlement, Seller may purchase a home warranty for the Property from a third-party vendor. Seller understands that a home warranty for the Property does not alter any disclosure requirements of Seller, may not cover or warrant any pre-existing defects of the Property, and will not alter, waive or extend any provisions of the Agreement regarding inspections or certifications that Buyer may elect or waive as part of the Agreement. Seller understands that Broker who recommends a home warranty may have a business relationship with the home warranty company that provides a financial benefit to Broker.

155 17. RECORDINGS ON THE PROPERTY

- (A) Seller understands that potential buyers viewing the Property may engage in photography, videography or videotelephony on the Property. Seller should remove any items of a personal nature Seller does not wish to have photographed or recorded, such as family photos, important or confidential paperwork (including any information relating to the listing or communications with Broker or Licensee) and all other personally identifiable information such as birthdates, social security numbers, telephone numbers, etc. Seller is responsible for providing this same notification to any occupants of the Property.
- (B) Any person who intentionally intercepts oral communications by electronic or other means without the consent of all parties is guilty of a felony under Pennsylvania law. Seller understands that recording or transmitting audio may result in violation of state or federal wiretapping laws. Seller hereby releases all BROKERS, their LICENSEES, EMPLOYEES and any OFFICER or PARTNER of any one of them, and any PERSON, FIRM or CORPORATION who may be liable by or through them, from any claims, lawsuits and actions which may arise from any audio or video recordings occurring in or around the Property.
